Date : 15.12.2017

- The Placement Cell and Department of Tamil jointly organized a one day programme entitled “How to appear in the Government competitive Examinations effectively?” on 15.12.2017 in our College campus.
- Mr. P. Rajendran, Director, Imayam Training Institute (TNPSC Examinations Training), Tiruppattur, Vellore District was the resource person.
- He pointed out that every year more than 10,00,000 students of Tamil Nadu apply for Government TNPSC Group-IV examinations but somehow they couldn't make it due to lacking somewhere in arrangement for the competition. Even though there are ample of iron in the fire in private sectors but still most of them priority for government jobs only for the reason of its facility and permanent settlement till retirement. They want to establish their career in Government sector as it is the hundred percent guarantee of lifetime security. Most of the candidates think of getting government job but rarely do they genuinely prepare for this. Cracking government competitive exam is not a cup of tea for everyone. For this students have to do really hard work.
- The Chairman of the College Mr. P.K. Sengodan offered felicitation address. He pointed out that preparing for Competitive examinations can be irksome. The various reasons, such as pressure from Parents, Peer Pressure, relative asking about progress, more competitions and much more. However, Competition is inevitable. Today is a competitive world. We must face all the problems with bravely. Opportunities are unlimited You should concentrate in your study. Time and tide wait for none.
