Self confidence, hard work, time management, planning of study, make a time table, knowing the UPSC syllabi, regular reading of newspapers/current affairs, choosing correct optional subjects, refer the NCERT books, making notes clearly, preference to answer writing practice, solving previous years UPSC question papers, self assessment of mock test series, utilization of impotent government resources like Government Websites, Watching RajyaSabha Television Programmes, Read out UPSC related magazines yoja, akurukshetra, economic and political weekly, etc.,

The civil service examinations are not a child’s play. It requires commitment, dedication, hard work, enthusiasm, planned studies and determination.
