Brainstorming discussion on “NAAC – Accreditation Challenges and Opportunities for Quality Enhancement Measures and Roadmap

The organization of PASAM (Periyar University Affiliated Self Finance Arts and Science Colleges Management Federation), Salem and the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Periyar University, Salem jointly organized a sensitization workshop entitled “Brainstorming discussion on “NAAC – Accreditation Challenges and Opportunities for Quality Enhancement Measures and Roadmap” for Colleges affiliated to Periyar University, Salem. It was held in the venue of VJ Pallazzio Hotel, Near AVR Roundana, Junction Main Road, Salem.

Mr. Muthuvel Ramaswamy, Secretary, PASAM welcomed the gathering. Mr. J. Rajendra Prasad, President, PASAM presided over the programme. Dr. N. Ramalakshmi, Joint Director of Collegiate Education, Dharmapuri Region delivered her special address. Gross Higher Education Enrolment Ratio is very high in Tamil Nadu state because of more roles of private colleges. As per the guidelines of UGC, NAAC is mandatory for all higher educational institutions. NAAC helps the institution in the allocation of resources. It helps in planning in the internal areas, she denoted.

The National Assessment Accreditation Council has introduced a new guideline that allows new higher educational institutions that have completed one academic year to apply for provisional accreditations. 7 criteria of NAAC assessment is very important.

NAAC accreditation is beneficial to Colleges, faculty members, parents, students, alumni as well as College promoters, Dr. Prof. R. Jagannathan, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Periyar University, Salem indicated in his inaugural address.

Dr. R. Venkatachalapathy, Director – IQAC, Periyar University, Salem presented his keynote address. Each and every college knows their strength, weakness, opportunities and threats. At present, documentation of NAAC work is very easy in comparison with previous years. Earlier on, we had to fill up the 96 metrics for affiliated colleges. Now it has reduced to 55, he said. Apart from that he gave some tips on preparation of 7 criterias of NAAC.

Dr. A.K. Ramasamy, Secretary, Bharathiar Educational Institutions, Deviyakurichi, Attur, Salem District, Dr. P. Selvaraj, Chairman, Selvam Educational Institutions, Namakkal spoke on that occasion.

On behalf of Trinity College for Women, Namakkal Er. K. Nallusamy, Secretary, Dr. M.R. Lakshiminarayanan, Principal, Dr. Arasuparameswaran, Director – Academic and Dr. N. Elamathi, Coordinator of IQAC took part in that occasion. More than 250 No's of College Promoters (Correspondent, Chairman and Secretary), Principals and IQAC coordinators attended that programme. Mr. P. Shanmuga Vadivel, Treasurer, PASAM proposed the vote of thanks.
