Definition

- The wardrobe planning is to select clothes that are so basic in style and good in design that they are appropriate for the present set up as well as suitable for a few years to come. To device maximum satisfaction one must develop good clothing practices. Good clothing practice includes the knowledge of wise selection of clothing, possession of an adequate wardrobe suited to various occasions which in turn helps in proper dressing habit.

FACTORS

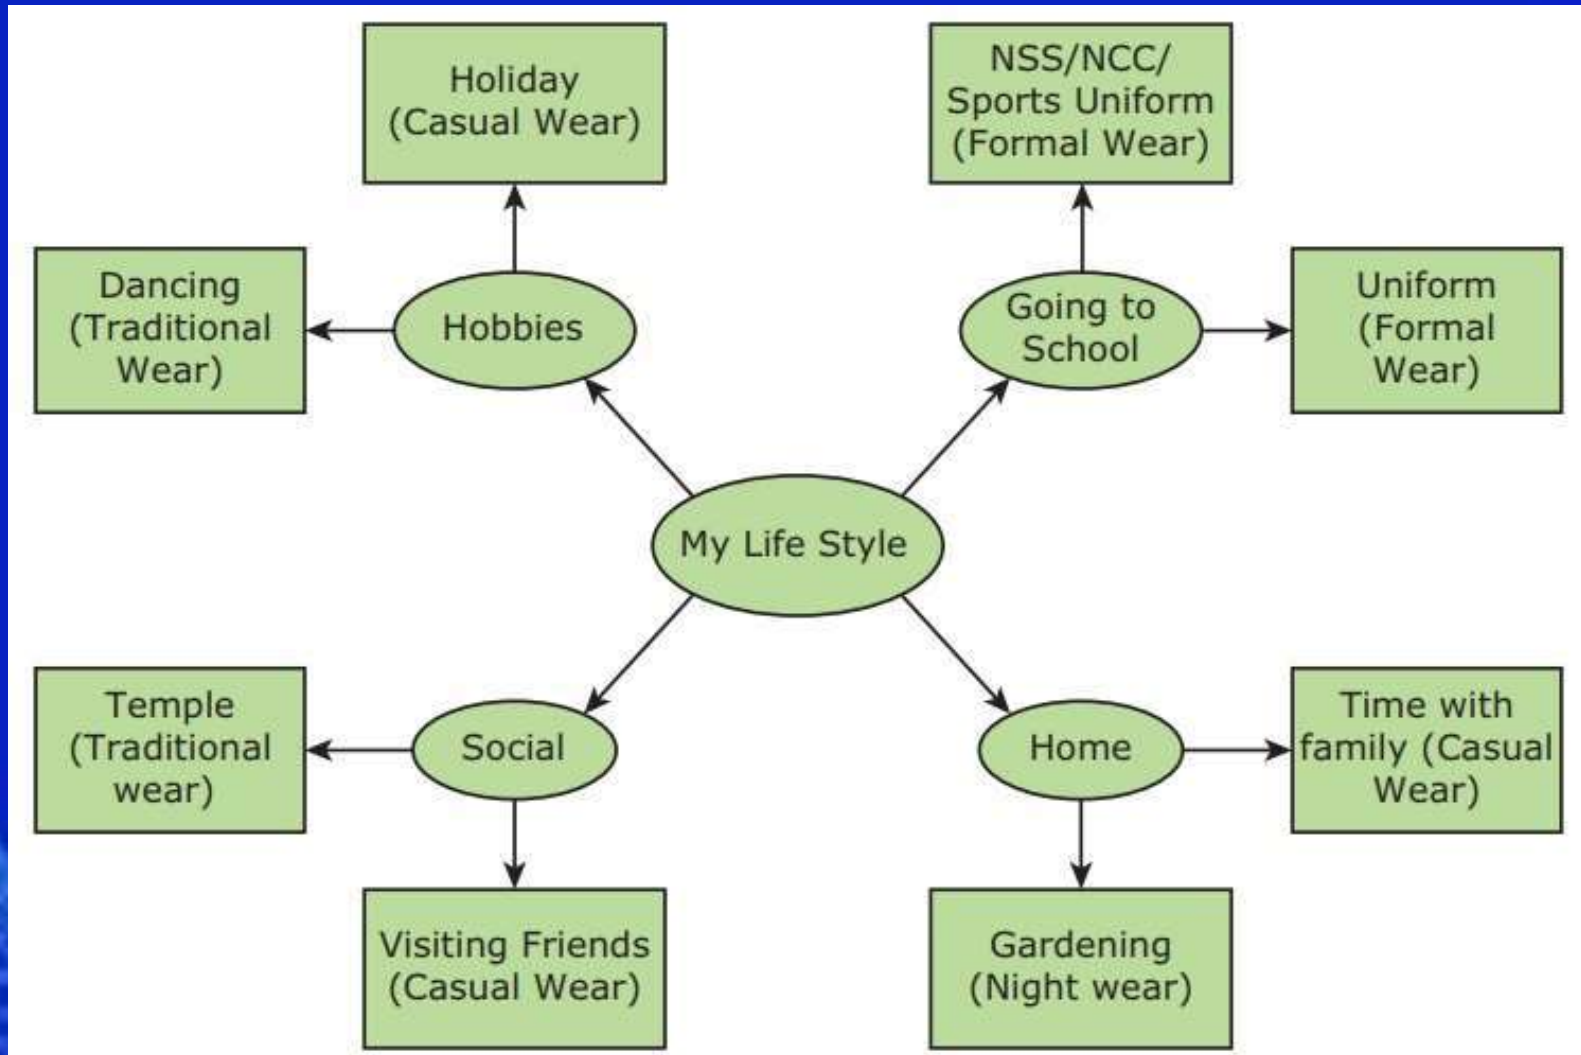

Wardrobe planning is influenced by many factors. The most common are Aesthetic, psychological, sociological and economic factors.

- Individual taste, social surroundings and family income.
- Age, sex, occupation of the family members.
- Durability, quality of clothing items, price, appearance and ease of care.
- The climate conditions, activities of a person, state of health.
- Fashion and lifestyle.

Steps in Wardrobe Planning

- Sort and Purge
- Remove items from your closet and drawers. As you remove items, sort them into one of four items:
 - “Store” (for seasonal items)
 - “Repair/Clean” (items which need hemming, buttons, cleaning)
 - “Donate” (Useable items with no repairs or cleaning needed)

Shop in Your Own Closet

MAKE A LIST

- In order to follow mixing and matching, make a list of the items you need to purchase to complement your existing one. Make a note of new clothes to be purchased. This list is the basis of your wardrobe plan.

Set Your Budget

- Estimate the cost of the garments need to purchase.

DETERMINE TIME AND PLACE

- Decide what time of year each piece needs to be purchased and what to purchase these items. For example, a great time to purchase a winter coat for cost savings is actually at the end of winter. The choice of store is determined by your budget and location. Allocate time and funds from your budget for shopping. Once per season is the recommended. A minimum of two hours should be allocated to each shopping.

Finalizing the Wardrobe

After following the basic steps to create a plan for your wardrobe, shopping is much easier and far more cost effective. Organize your wardrobe to get the maximum efficiency and minimize the stress associated with getting dressed in the morning.

The background is a solid blue color. In the top-right and bottom-left corners, there is a decorative grid pattern that curves inward, creating a sense of depth and perspective.
