1. Grama Sabha Meeting on October 2, 2023

The Grama Sabha meeting in the village panchayat was held across India on October 2, 2023 (the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhiji) under the theme "Everything for everyone."

It aims for inclusive, accountable, and people-centric local administration. On this subject, UBA adopted village representatives (Vagurampatti, Aniyapuram, Parali, Tholur, and Pettapalayam in Namakkal District) along with the few students of the college who attended that Grama Sabha Meeting on 2nd October 2023. The presidents of the villages highlighted the various welfare schemes of Governments (both central and state governments). Also, they elucidated awareness to prevent dengue, rainwater harvesting, and precautionary measures for the north-east monsoon.

On behalf of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell of Trinity College for Women, Namakkal, Mrs. R. Navamani (UBA Representative of Pettapalayam village), Mrs. S. Priya (UBA Representative of Aniyapuram village), Mrs. V. Gokila (UBA Representative of Vagurampatti village), Dr. A. Latha (UBA Representative of Parali village), Mrs. D. Prabha (UBA Representative of Tholur village), and Mrs. S. Hemalatha, Coordinator, UBA Cell, interacted with the concerned presidents of the village.

2. Event on “Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell”

On behalf of the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell, Trinity College for Women, Namakkal has organised a one-day event entitled “Door to Door Campaign: Awareness Programme on Rainy Season Diseases Like Malaria, Dengue, Typhoid, etc.” on October 3, 2023, in the adopted village (Aniyapuram) of UBA of our College.

Mrs. S. Hemalatha, Coordinator, Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell, and the two students of Trinity College for Women (Ms. P. Sarathi, III B.Com., and Ms. M. Dharshini, III B.Com., CA) have explained the various rainy season diseases such as dengue, malaria, typhoid, hepatitis, diarrhoea, and Leptospirosis to the people of Aniyapuram and Chinnapethampatti villages in Mohanur Block, Namakkal District. Also, they addressed the villagers of these places and shared their views related to the prevention of diseases in the situation of climate change.

3. Inauguration Programme on “3 months free tailoring programme for rural women in and around Aniyapuram village, Namakkal” under the auspices of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell

The Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell, Trinity College for Women, Namakkal, and Rathinasabapathy Environmental Rural Development Organisation, Namakkal, are going to jointly conduct the 3-month event on “Imparting tailoring skill programmes for rural women in and around Aniyapuram Village” from October 4, 2023, to December 31, 2023, in Aniyapuram, Mohanur Taluk, Namakkal District. The training period is three months. On this subject, an inauguration function was held on October 4, 2023, at the Village Panchayat Office, Aniyapuram.

Er. K. Nallusamy, Chairman; Mrs. Aruna Selvaraj, Executive Director; Dr. M.R. Lakshiminarayanan, Principal; Mr. M. Thillai Sivakumar, Director, Rathinasabapathy Environmental Rural Development Organisation, Namakkal; Mr. S. Murugesan, President, Mrs. S. Dhanalakshmi, Vice-President, Mr. P. Velmurugan, Secretary, Mr. N. Sudhakar, Ward Member, Aniyapuram Village; and the UBA representatives of the College, Mrs. R. Navamani (Pettapalayam), Mrs. S. Priya (Aniyapuram), Dr. A. Latha (Parali), Mrs. V. Gokila (Vagurampatti), Mrs. D. Prabha (Tholur), Mrs. S. Hemalatha, Coordinator of UBA Cell, Mrs. V. Gayathri, AP in Computer Science, Mrs. K. Nirmala, Village Administrative Officer, Aniyapuram, The trainer, Mrs. R. Deepika, the staff of RERDO, Mr. K. Pravin, and some of the students of the college participated in this inauguration ceremony.

There is no possibility of getting agricultural-related work for rural women all day. This tailoring training will be helpful for rural women's empowerment. If they have a single machine in their home, their livelihood is highly improved, Er. K. Nallusamy, Chairman, pointed out.

Agriculture-related functions are not available for all 365 days in a year. Due to their increased family income, tailoring training will be given to the rural women in and around Aniyapuram village. Five sewing machines have been allotted, as have tailoring experts who have also been appointed. This training will be helpful to them, and their livelihood will also increase, as Mr. M. Thillai Sivakumar denoted.

More than 25 women in the villages around Aniyapuram, like Aniyapurampudur, Parali, and Chinnapethampatti, have actively taken part.

4. Programme on "Meri Maati Mera Desh" (my soil, my country)

As a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (75th India's independence day celebrations), Nehru Yuva Kendra (Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports, Government of India), Namakkal, India Post, Namakkal division, and the National Service Scheme, Youth Red Cross, Red Ribbon Club, and Unnat Bharat Abhiyan Cell of Trinity College for Women, Namakkal jointly conducted the programme entitled "Block Level Meri Maati Mera Desh (Maati Ka Namaan Veeronka Vandan/Amlesh Yatra): Building of clay and salutation to the brave on 25th October 2023 in the college premises. The main aim of the programme is Meri Maati Mera Desh (my soil, my country). It also includes honouring freedom fighters, who protect the nation and families of brave or freedom fighters. All the participants were taking the Panch Pran pledge with a fistful of soil. All the volunteers from NSS, YRC, RRC, and UBA Cell had collected their clay (soil) and put it in the pot.

Mr. G. Panneerselvam, Office of the Superintendent of Police, Namakkal Division and Mr. R.S. Arun, Multi-Tasking Staff (MTS), Nehru Yuvakendra, Namakkal were the special invitees. They highlighted the role of our freedom fighters for our India's independence.

Mrs. S. Hemalatha, Coordinator of UBA, Trinity College for Women, Namakkal proposed the vote of thanks.

The following programme beneficiaries have shared their views in that feedback session.

Mrs. A. Rajeswari, Aniyapuram Pudur, Aniyapuram village

On the first day, when I joined the three-month free tailoring training course, I did not know about sewing. At the end of the day, I stitched the various clothes like chudithar, nightie, blouse, and petticoat. I would like to express my special thanks to Trinity College for Women, Namakkal, and RERA, Namakkal.

Mrs. M. Vennila, Chinnapethampatti, Aniyapuram village

As a result of this 3-month training course, I learned that handicrafts are essential for women's development. This 90-day training programme gives me full satisfaction.

Mrs. R. Jeevitha, NPS Nagar, Aniyapuram village

After sending my husband to work and my children to school, I am going to take up sewing work for our family's additional income. This 3-month free tailoring course was very helpful to our family. I convey my gratitude to the college and the RERO.

Mrs. E. Manjula, ACT Nagar, Aniyapuram village

Now, tailors charge Rs. 10 to Rs. 15 to stitch a small piece of cloth. A thought arose in my mind about why we should buy a sewing machine at home. This training helped me to accomplish that. I pass on my special thanks to all the organizers.
